

10 Common Credit Mistakes to Avoid Before Closing Day

You're almost at the finish line! It's critical to avoid making these big changes to your finances that could derail the closing process.

Changing bank accounts during the loan process

Quitting your job or switching employment

Paying your bills late and risking delinquency

Making big-ticket purchases such as buying a car

Ignoring inquiries from your lender – no matter how small

Making large bank deposits other than your paychecks

Co-signing another loan with anyone

Letting someone other than your lender run a credit check on you

Taking out any payday advance loans

Opening or closing any lines of credit
